Summary of reasons for decision:

The video is very poor quality footage of a child sleeping. While the footage is unsettling, there is nothing within the video by itself to warrant restriction since it does not deal with any matters under s3(1) of the FVPC Act, nor does it raise any issues under ss3A, 3B or s3(4) of that Act. The video must, therefore, be classified unrestricted. This classification is consistent with the right to freedom of expression as affirmed by the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990.
